RE: SELF-EVALUATION FORMS

It has come to our attention that some jobsites are requiring “self-evaluation forms” to be signed by members prior to entering a jobsite. Such a form is a mandatory subject of bargaining and as such, we have been engaged in its discussion with our NECA partner. Until an understanding and subsequent agreement is reached, members should not sign the documents.

In the event you will not be allowed access to your jobsite without signing, we recommend adding the information below to the self-evaluation form provided to you (whether by your Employer or the GC).

If you have any questions, feel free to contact a Business Representative at the Hall.

DETACH AND INCLUDE WITH SELF-EVALUATION, IF REQUIRED TO GAIN JOBSITE ACCESS

This information is being requested of me in order to gain access to the jobsite. My answers to the questions above are honest and to the best of my knowledge, but I am not a medical professional. My completion of this form does not relieve the following of their responsibility to ensure I have a safe work environment:

GENERAL CONTRACTOR
